AGRICOLA

ONLINE COURSE

JUNE 12-16, 1978

The Technical Information Systems, Science and Education Administration is sponsoring a five-day workshop to train librarians and information specialists in the utilization of its AGRICOLA bibliographic data base in an online mode. Charles L. Gilreath, who compiled the CAIN ONLINE USERS MANUAL, will teach the course with the aid of terminal instructors.

The course will be held June 12-16, 1978 at the Illini Union, University of Illinois, at Champaign-Urbana. Registrants will be responsible for their lodging, meals and transportation, but all equipment, manuals and instructions will be provided. A block of sleeping rooms has been set aside at the Illini Union, University of Illinois, at Champaign-Urbana. In making reservations indicate attendance at the AGRICOLA ONLINE Course. Persons wishing to attend should submit their names on letterhead stationery by May 12, to:

Automated Retrieval Services, TIS
National Agricultural Library Building
Beltsville, Maryland 20705.

Emergency telephone reservations, or inquiries, may be made by calling (301) 344-3834.

Twenty persons will be accepted in the course with preference given to government, land-grant or agriculturally related organizations in the East. The course is introductory to the use of AGRICOLA; no prior terminal experience is required. The course will provide extensive lecture, exercise, and terminal experience with commercial systems offering AGRICOLA.
